PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our organization is off to a good start for the fall season of 1991. The September and October meetings were well attended and the programs were outstanding. The "Beyond Beginners Classes" gave us new insight into valuable genealogical subjects.

Congratulations are in order to Jane Bailey, editor of our newsletter, for winning the Award of Special Merit which was given by the North Carolina Society of Historians at their 50th annual meeting held on 2 November 1991, in Raleigh. This is the second year that the Clarendon Courier has won this award in the newsletter competition.

Randy Cary, who was instrumental in the organization of our society, has been appointed to fill an unexpired term on the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Genealogical Society. Congratulations, Randy! He is the second one of our members selected to serve on the Board of Directors of NCGS. The present Coastal Director is Beverly Tetterton.

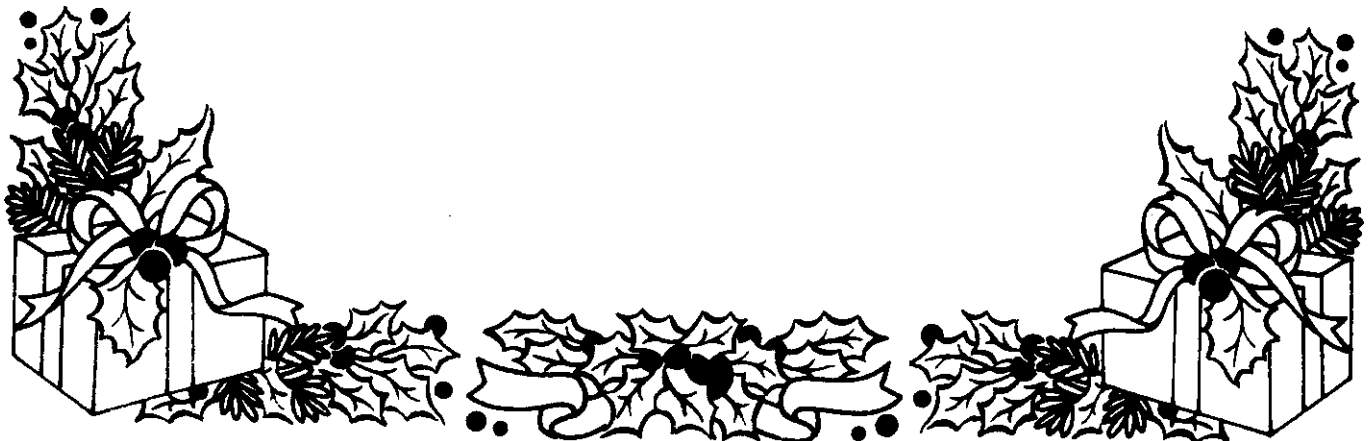

William R. Reaves of Wilmington was awarded a Certificate of Commendation by the American Association for State and Local History for the preservation of Wilimington history. This prestigious award was presented at their 51st annual meeting in Dearborn, Michigan on 24 August 1991. We are extremely proud of you, Bill, and appreciate all that you do for this area and our society.

My wife, Marsha, and I would like to invite each of you to our home at 7:00 P.M. ON 17 DECEMBER FOR THE SOCIETY ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY. Please see the enclosed insert for further information, including a map and directions.

To our out of town members and others who may not be able to join us on the 17th, the Board of Directors and I want to wish you and your families,

HAPPY HOLIDAYS,

George Willcox

REPORT FROM THE BOOK DEPARTMENT:

The Book Department is pleased to report that the orders for our published works are up due to the recent advertising we sent out via bulk mailing. Our net profit this last quarter was slightly over $600.00. The Local History Room of the New Hanover County Public Library will receive one-half of this amount with which to purchase additional genealogical material.

Our newest addition to the volumes for sale is the New Hanover County, North Carolina 1860 Federal Census. This volume was abstracted by Delmas D. Haskett and arranged and indexed by Ann Hewlett Hutteman. What a team! This is the duo who gave us the 1880 Census which is a fantastic set of books. "Our hats off" to these contributing members of ONHGS.

You may purchase The New Hanover County, North Carolina 1860 Federal Census, 407 pages, soft bound, for $50.00 plus $2.25 postage and handling. Members receive a 10% discount on all publications. This volume does not appear on ~rice List/Order Form # 6 which is an insert in this issue of the newsletter. Just write it in at the end of the list of publications on the back side of the form.

The 1840 Duplin County Federal Census is on our price list, but there has been a slight delay in shipping. By the time you receive this newsletter, the Census should be ready to be purchased. We appreciate your understanding and patience.

Several other titles are in the works, including a volume of delayed birth certificates, a volume of Mortality Schedules for 1860 for several counties in the "Old New Hanover" group, and a volume of Brunswick County Court Minutes. The abstracting has been completed on several other titles. What we need now are typists and proof readers. If you have time to devote to this worthy endeavor, please contact us at the Society's mailing address or at one of the telephone numbers listed below.

May we take this opportunity to say, "thank you" to each one of you for your support during this past year, and to wish all of YOU,

A Safe and Blessed
Holiday Season

REPORT FROM THE PROGRAM COMMITTEE

The "Beyond Beginners" genealogy classes for advanced researchers, co-sponsored by ONGHS and the Library, was a great success. We have heard many favorable responses from the participants. The speakers were well prepared and the handouts were excellent (one contained twenty-nine pages.)

The Library and the ONHGS program committee thank our speakers, William D. Bennett, Dean S. Jarrett, Helen F. M. Leary, June E. Swinson, Judy W. Thompson, Georae W. Willcox, and Beverly Tetterton for an interesting and informative series.

We will consider providing more classes (both beginners and advanced) if the membership so desires. A suggestion has been made to have an annual weekend symposium which would enable out of town members and guests to attend. Please send additional suggestions to the Program Committee.

It is with great pleasure that I inform you that Angus Baxter, the author of six best-selling books on genealogy, has recovered from his illness and will be able to speak to us at our meeting on 17 March 1992. Mr. Baxter was the scheduled speaker for the September 1991 meeting, but was too ill to make his "southern tour." Mr. Randy Cary, our March speaker, has graciously agreed to present his lecture on military records at a later date.

The program committee is planning again to provide a variety of genealogical door prizes to be awarded at the annual CHRISTMAS PARTY. Donations of door prizes, especially cash donations to purchase them, are welcome. Please call me if you want to make a donation or have questions regarding the Christmas party.

[The following letter, dated 11 July 1991, was received from the FRIENDS OF THE ARCHIVES] Dear Old New Hanover Genealogical Society: On behalf of the Friends of the Archives, Inc., please accept my sincere thanks for the contribution you made to our recent meeting. This was one of the best annual meeting events we have had and your help made it possible. Give our particular thanks to Beverly Tetterton, Sue Estep, John Butler, Sallie McClintock, Dean Jarrett, Ed Turberg, Janet Seapker, Helen Sammons, and Glenn Tetterton for their gracious hospitality.

To take the time out of your very busy schedules to make arrangements for our meeting is sincerely appreciated. Everything was wonderful. Thank you.

GENEALOGICAL NOTES FROM THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following family files have been added to the Reaves Collection as of 27 October 1991: WENBERG, WERNER, VAN LAER, ZEIGLER, RUNGE, ULRICH, WELLER, CONVIL, CLEMMONS, WESTERMANN, WENZEL, WEILL, WESSELL, VINEBERG, VON GLAHN, VICK, STRUNCK, VON KAMPEN, VERNELSON, THEES, TOPEL, TIETGEN, SWANN (SWAN), SINGLETARY, SHAW, SWART, VOLLERS, ZIBELIN, VAN LAER, VAN BOKKELEN, GURGANUS, GURGANIOUS, EAKINS, COSTIN, WYCHE, BRIDGER, SHOLAR, PRICE (William Joseph and Joseph only), JAMES, PADGETT, PIGFORD, PUGH, POISSON, JENKINS, McALLISTER, MOHR, NOBLE, NEWTON, WATSON, and Miscellaneous surnames that start with Wa, We, Wi, Wo, and Wr.

The Library maintains a current index to the Reaves Collection on catalog cards, which are located in the local history and genealogy room. The Clarendon Courier contains the only printed list of family names located in the Reaves Collection. Back issues of the Courier can be ordered from the Society. The library staff will check the card index for you, but can not provide a printed list. You may request a copy of a file by writing to the Local History Room, New Hanover County Public Library, 201 Chestnut Street, Wilmington, NC 28401. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope; the staff will advise you of the costs ($.15 per page plus postage and handling.)

Dorothy Woods has recently joined the staff of the Local History and Genealogy Room. Dorothy says, "I don't know how you ever functioned without me; there is so much work to be done!" One of her many jobs is making the Reaves Collection available to researchers in a timely fashion. She is particularly interested in African-American history and genealogy and is currently serving on the Wilmington African-American History Commission. She is a welcome addition to our staff.

Dorothy is right about so much work to be done. The local history and genealogy collection is growing, and as the visitors from all over the United States discover it, the work piles up. Great volunteers like Helen Sammons help by answering some of the many requests that we receive each month. Helen's knowledge of genealogical research and of our particular collection, allows her to efficiently assist genealogists. If you write the library for help, remember, we can not perform miracles; but we will send one (1) will, deed, marriage bond, or other record which may point you in the right direction. We will also copy pages from printed abstracts which contain the names of your ancestor. If you need more assistance, we will refer you to local professional researchers. The library salutes great volunteers like Helen Sammons.

NEW HANOVER COUNTY GUARDIAN BONDS - 1843-1854

Abstracted by Delmas Hasket

Arranged and Typed by Debbie Edens

These abstracts were taken from microfilmed records located in the Local History Room of the New Hanover County Public Library in Wilmington, NC.

Property often came into the possession of persons who were unable to handle it because of age or infirmity. Probate authorities appointed guardians, receivers, trustees, or collectors to take charge of such property. Guardians were appointed for orphans; for children of living parents but who were possessed of estates; for children who were parties to legal proceedings; for incompetents such as lunatics, idiots, and inebriates. However, most researchers will probably be most concerned with guardians of orphans.

Guardians were appointed from among relatives or neighbors of the ward or from other persons considered trustworthy by the probate authority. Those persons under the care of a guardian were called wards, but this did not necessarily mean the ward was an orphan. Children fourteen years of age or older were allowed to choose their own guardians and were allowed to change guardians. They were legally minors or infants until the age of twenty-one years.

Upon appointment by the probate authority, guardians were required to take oaths and post bonds before receiving letters of guardianship[. Guardians were also required to submit an annual report or account to the court and to renew their bonds periodically. A surety was a person who assured responsibility for the guardian's character and financial stability.

For additional information on the nature of Guardian Bonds, please consult pages 176 and 177, Chapter 11, North Carolina Genealogy and Local History, edited by Helen F. M. Leary and Maurice R. Stirewalt (The North Carolina Genealogical Society, Raleigh, NC 1980)

WHY USE DATABASES?

Carl P. Curry, Forum Member

For those who use computers to track their genealogical exploits there is often the question of why one would want to use database software when there are so many genealogical programs to choose from? If you will pardon a personal reference, I think I can offer one case in point.

Because the war between the states shattered family connections, it was necessary to sift large amounts of data from the censuses of six southern states from 1850 through 1870. Because database programs possess great flexibility in manipulating data, I used one to input census entries of Curry families of this period. I then asked it to index the entries in the following priorities: Year, State, Surname, First name, Middle Name (or initial) and print out the list in the order of:

YEAR STATE COUNTY PAGE FNAME LNAME AGE SEX

This printout made it easy to scan and identify entries which appeared to have similarities in their data. In 693 lines of data entered representing the period from 1818 to 1880 the following data appeared:

1820	GA	Wilk	166	Leroy	Curry
1830	GA	Mwr	152	Leroy	curry
1850	MS	Hinds	174	Leroy	Curry	50	M
1850	MS	Hinds	174	Theba	Curry	49	F
1850	MS	Hinds	174	Richard	Curry	22	M

Now George Curry had the same name as my Great Grandfather (George Washington Curry) who was killed at Vicksburg in 1862. He was also about the same age. My GGF was living in Bienville Parish, LA when he enlisted in Co. K of the LA 25th Inf. The Census for Bienville Parish has been lost. The next step was to search the marriage records of the period. On searching the marriage records we find that George Washington Curry married Mary Hester in 1855 and one of the witnesses to the marriage was a Leroy Curry. My Grandfather's bible lists his own birth as 5 Mar 1856, just one year after the marriage.

All of this could have been discovered using a genealogical program or even by the time honored way of pencil and paper. When originally there is no hint as where to start, and so much data to be analyzed, the use of a database was so much easier. This is especially true when there are so many database programs available as "Shareware" or even some in the public domain.

It appears that this approach is valuable and convenient to those who have the need.

The Genealogical Record is indexed for subject matter in the Genealogical Periodical Annual Index., 3602 Maureen Lane, Bowie, MD 20715. [Some of our members have ancestors who migrated from North Carolina to Texas.]

2. The new 1991-1992 Catalog of North Carolina Publications. which is of special interest to genealogists, is now available free of charge from: Historical Publications Section, Division of Archives and History, 109 East Jones Street, Raleigh, NC 27601-2807; or telephone 919-733-7442.

3. A German Workshop was held September 27-28 in Winston-Salem, NC by the Forsyth County Genealogical Society. Cassette tapes and handouts are available by mail. Contact the society at P O Box 5715, Winston-Salem NC 27113-5715 for a list of the tapes and an order form.

A special thank you to one of our members, Elsie Brannon, who took the time to write to tell us how proud she is of our newsletter. She loaned it to a friend in Georgia who reported that people who read it were impressed that a "such a young society was able to have the size and quality of the Clarendon Courier." The reason our society is able to publish a newsletter that receives good reviews and state awards is that we have a great membership. You continue to support your society with your dues, your interest, and the articles that you submit.

We have plans for several new series of articles plus a number of surprises in the 1992 issues. We challenge our membership to send in unpublished material. Next year, we may win a national award!

We hope all of your Holidays will be Happy and Holy ones,
