PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The reason for having any organization is to fulfill the needs of its members. We would like to have your comments and suggestions as the Society officers and committee members begin to make plans for the newsletter, programs, workshops and other activities for the coming year.

An analysis of our membership rolls gives us concern that your interests may be different from what we understand. It suggests that we need to know more about what you need and want from a genealogical organization. A questionnaire is enclosed in this newsletter. Please take a few minutes and share your thoughts, concerns and wants for your Society. We encourage you to be candid and point out any problems you see and any suggestions you may have for improvement. Please mail the questionnaires to me at the Society address, or bring them with you to the next meeting.

The programs for the rest of the year are exciting. ANGUS BAXTER WILL BE HERE TUESDAY, 17 MARCH 1992. Then we will be meeting at the Latimer House on Tuesday, 21 April 1992. Dianne Cashman and Merle Chamberlain will discuss the Genealogical Records of the Lower Cape Fear Historical Society there at the Latimer House (126 South Third Street, Wilmington, NC.)

Our Annual Spring Picnic will be held again at Moores Creek Battlefield Park at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, 16 May. Members from area genealogical and historical societies have been invited to join us and bring their families. The event will be held in Patriots Hall, which will comfortably accommodate a large group under any weather conditions. Two outstanding speakers, a family picnic, and a tour of the battlefield are planned. Make plans now to join us for a pleasant and informative outing.

Saturday, 16 May 1992

- 11:00 - SPEAKER: "Prelude to Moores Creek: The Coming of the Revolution in the Lower Cape Fear¹" by Dr. Alan D. Watson, professor of history at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.
- 12:00 - PICNIC: Family Picnic. Please bring your favorite picnic dish and share. Drinks and paper products will be provided.
- 1:30 - SPEAKER: "The Battle of Moores Creek," by Dusty Schultz of the National Park Service.
- 2:00 - TOUR: Tour of the Battlefield with a Musket Demonstration.

Dr. Watson is a noted colonial historian whose latest book, Wilmington: Port of North Carolina, has recently been published.

GENEALOGICAL NOTES FROM NEW HANOVER PUBLIC LIBRARY

by Beverly Tetterton, Special Collections Librarian

The following family files have been added to the Reaves Collection as of 1 February 1992: Farrow, Highsmith, Mason, Leonard, Lennon, Evans (two parts), Kerrr (two parts), Gore (three parts), Evans, Clayton, Northrop and Oldham.

You may request a copy of a file by writing to the Local History Room, New Hanover County Public Library, 201 Chestnut Street, Wilmington, NC 28401. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope; the staff will advise you of the costs ($.15 per page plus postage and handling.)

We are considering putting our membership list, and possibly the surnames being researched, in the Clarendon Courier. If you do not want to have your name and address listed, please let us know by the 1 May 1992. If you have not submitted the names of the ancestors you are researching, please list them on the enclosed form and send it to Charlotte Fetterman at the Society mailing address.

URGENT: The Old New Hanover Genealogical Society needs its own computer and printer to use in producing the newsletter and publications. If any member would like to make a tax deductible contribution of equipment or can assist with technical advice to help determine the type of equipment needed, please contact George Willcox, president, at (919) 256-4528 or John Butler, vice-president, at (919) 371-3594. You may also write to them at the Society address.

NOTICE: One of our members, June E. Swinson, will be the instructor for a Basic Genealogy Class, to be held on Thursdays from 6:00 - 8:30 p.m, from March 19 - May 7. The fee will be $35.00. For more information, call June at (919) 343-1100.

HITHER AND YON

A Guide to Researching in Various Repositories
by Jane B. Bailey, editor

FAMILY HISTORY CENTER - Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day
, 514 S. college Rd., , NC 28403 (919) 44

Lib. Hrs.: Tues & Thurs 6:00 pm - 9:00 p.m.
Fri 10:00 am - 2:00 p.m.
Sat 10:00 am - 5:00 p.m.

According to Mrs. Mary Painter, the speaker for our February meeting, there are lots of exciting things going on in the Family History Center in Wilmington and in other centers across the country. In addition to the material on file on microfiche and microfilm: The International Genealogical Index (IGI), The Family Group Records Collection, The Family Histories, and the Family Registry, the center has a computerized genealogical information system called "Family Search."

"Family Search is a collection of easy to use computer files developed to help individuals find information about their ancestors. The files are on compact disks and include:

ANCESTRAL FILE - contains genealogies linked together by family groups and pedigrees. One can trace an ancestor's ascent or descent as far back or forward as the family information that others have contributed will allow.

INTERNATIONAL GENEALOGICAL INDEX (IGI) - contains names and vital information for over 147 million people, listing them alphabetically by country or state of birth or marriage.

FAMILY HISTORY LIBRARY CATALOG (FHLC) - contains lists of every book in the Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City that can be ordered on microfilm. For a small fee, you may order the microfilm for three weeks, six months, or on indefinite loan.

SOCIAL SECURITY DEATH INDEX - a collection of 39.5 million names of deceased persons who had social security numbers and whose deaths were reported to the Social Security Administration. It will give you the person's Social Security Number, the month and year of death, the state and zip code (which allows you to ask the computer for the town.) The index will also give you the address of the Vital Records office in that state where you can write for an official death certificate. You may also write to the Social Security Office for a copy of the application packet on file for that person for a fee of about $7.00.

Mrs. Painter and the other members of the local LDS church who volunteer their time are very cordial and eager to assist visitors to the Family History Center. You may want to call ahead and reserve time on the computer if you plan to use it.

[The following collection of tombstone inscriptions was compiled by Donald R. Lennon, head of the East Carolina Manuscript Collection, J. Y. Joyner Library, East Carolina University in Greenville, North Carolina. Dr. Lennon has graciously allowed us to print them. Editor]

NEW HANOVER COUNTY GUARDIAN BONDS - 1843-1854

Abstracted by Delmas Hasket

Arranged and Typed by Debbie Edens

These abstracts were taken from microfilmed records located in the Local History Room of the New Hanover County Public Library in Wilmington, NC.

Property often came into the possession of persons who were unable to handle it because of age or infirmity. Probate authorities appointed guardians, receivers, trustees, or collectors to take charge of such property. Guardians were appointed for orphans; for children of living parents but who were possessed of estates; for children who were parties to legal proceedings; for incompetents such as lunatics, idiots, and inebriates. However, most researchers will probably be most concerned with guardians of orphans.

Guardians were appointed from among relatives or neighbors of the ward or from other persons considered trustworthy by the probate authority. Those persons under the care of a guardian were called wards, but this did not necessarily mean the ward was an orphan. Children fourteen years of age or older were allowed to choose their own guardians and were allowed to change guardians. They were legally minors or infants until the age of twenty-one years.

Upon appointment by the probate authority, guardians were required to take oaths and post bonds before receiving letters of guardianship. Guardians were also required to submit an annual report or account to the court and to renew their bonds periodically. A surety was a person who assumed responsibility for the guardian's character and financial stability.

For additional information on the nature of Guardian Bonds. please consult pages 176 and 177, Chapter 11, North Carolina Genealogy and Local History, edited by Helen F. M. Leary and Maurice R. Stirewalt (The North Carolina Genealogical Society, Raleigh, NC 1980)
