PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members,

The series of six genealogy classes called "Putting the Puzzle Together" has been successfully completed. Thirty eager students attended. A great deal of gratitude goes to coordinator June Swinson, and teachers Jane Bailey, Beverly Tetterton, June Swinson, Dean Jarrett, Kiki Freer-Parsons, Randy Cary, and John Butler.

Old New Hanover Genealogical Society
P.O. Box 2536
Wilmington, N.C. 28402-2536

OBJECTIVES: (1) To collect, preserve, and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical, and heraldic data; (2) To encourage and promote interest in research in these fields; (3) To adhere to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research; (4) To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices of researchers; (5) To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing; (6) To issue publications; (7) To encourage, and provide scholarly training for all interested in these endeavors.

MEMBERSHIP: The membership of the Society is open to all individuals and organizations interested in genealogy upon payment of dues which are renewed annually on the anniversary of the original membership. Dues are: Individual and Institutional - $15.00; Family - $20.00; Life - $100.00. Mail dues to Membership Chairman at the above address. Members are also requested to submit surnames they are researching to be included in the Society Ancestor Roster.

NEWSLETTER: Members receive the Society newsletter, the Clarendon Courier, which is published quarterly; September, December, March and June. The deadline for material to be submitted to the editor is the 10th of the month prior to the publication date.

MEETINGS: Monthly meetings, unless otherwise notified, are held at 7:00 p.m. on the third Tuesday of each month, September through May. Unless notified the meetings are held in Room 105, Bear Hall, on the campus of UNCW.

QUERIES: Queries are published free for members when space is available. They should be typed or legibly printed on separate sheets of paper, each with the sender's name and address. Each query should state a geographical connection to Southeastern North Carolina, or adjacent areas, and such dates as will place them in context. They are subject to editing. So that the editor will understand them, please do not abbreviate: Mail them to Van Stilley, Queries Editor, at the above address.

OFFICERS: George Willcox, President
Sallie McClintock, Treasurer
John Butler, Vice-president
Dean Jarrett, Past President
Addie Dunlap, Secretary, Recording
June Swinson, Secretary, Corresponding
Jo Ann O'Quinn, Board Member at Large

NEWSLETTER: Beverly Tetterton

Our meeting place has been changed to Room 105 in Bear Hall on the campus of UNCW. This is an easily accessible building with a well lighted parking lot only a few yards from the first floor meeting room. Maps are available at the Public Library Local History Room or call me at 256-4528.

Plans have been made for a dinner get-together for our Christmas Party at the Cape Golf and Racquet Club. Join us for a festive evening with good food and our traditional door prizes.

The North Carolina Society of Historians has honored your organization with two awards. One is for our newsletter and the other one for our contributions as an organization.

We have lots of exciting programs ahead. Have a happy holiday season!

George Willcox, President

CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Christmas party will be held at the Clubhouse Restaurant, 535 The Cape Blvd., on Tuesday, December 15, 1992. Take Highway 421 towards Carolina Beach. One mile South of Carolina Beach take a right into the Cape subdivision. The Clubhouse Restaurant is on that street at the Cape Golf and Racquet Club. The menu consists of Prime Rib (10 oz. choice cut), Chicken Francese (breast of chicken gently sauteed with lemon, butter and white wine), or Capelli Frutti Di Mare (shrimp, scallops and fish in a light tomato sauce over angel hair pasta). The cost is $15.79 per person, which includes tax and gratuity. Alcoholic beverages and soft drinks are available for an additional charge. Door prizes will be given to lucky genealogists.

PUBLICATIONS  PUBLICATIONS  PUBLICATIONS

Oakdale Cemetery Records, Volume III, is hot off the presses. This volume was produced by Delmas D. Haskett and Ann Hewlett Hutteman, who according to the introduction, enjoy reading cemetery records as if they were best-selling novels. We are grateful to their interest and hard work. Oakdale, Wilmington's largest cemetery, has over 18,000 internments. This volume covers the years from 1920 to 1949. The first two volumes are also available from the Society.

Books in progress include Brunswick County Court Minutes, Volume II, Brunswick County Commissioners Minutes, and Columbus and Bladen County Voter Registrations, 1902-1908. There are many manuscripts which need to be proof-read or typed. Please let us know if you have time to spare for these important projects. The publications committee thanks all the dedicated volunteers who give so much time to making our publications a reality.

Brunswick County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions Minutes, Volume I is out selling all expectations. Please tell your friends and fellow genealogists about this important publication. A new price list is available upon request. ONHGS books make great Christmas gifts! Remember you get a 10% discount if you are a Society member.

John Butler, Dean Jarrett and Jim Stokely, Publications Committee

AWARDS

A profile of ONHGS member Randy Cary was featured in the November issue of the North Carolina Genealogical Society Newsletter. Randy is retiring from the NCGS Board of Directors on January 1st. At the NCGS annual meeting held on October 31, he was given a certificate of appreciation for his Society work. Randy holds the position of Director, as well as publicity coordinator for NCGS.

At the same meeting ONHGS member, Bill Reaves, was honored and given a special certificate of recognition for donating his book, North Carolina Freedman's Savings & Trust Company Records, to the North Carolina Genealogical Society for publication. The book contains over 8,600 records of freed slaves, many who were from the Lower Cape Fear area, and is available from Margaret Hoffman, NCGS, P.O. Box 446, Roanoke Rapids, NC 27870. The cost is $31.80.

MORE AWARDS!

On Saturday, November 7, 1992 the North Carolina Society of Historians recognized the Old New Hanover Genealogical Society in two categories. President George Willcox accepted the Malcolm Fowler Award for outstanding contributions as a Society. Former newsletter editor, Jane Bailey, accepted an award for outstanding publication. ONHGS member Diane Cashman was also awarded a plaque for outstanding historian for the Eastern part of North Carolina. The Society was represented at the ceremony by George Willcox, John Butler, Jane Bailey, Randy Cary, Dean Jarrett, Sallie McClintock, Beverly Tetterton and Diane Cashman. We were honored to be recognized by genealogists and historians from across North Carolina.

Genealogical Notes from the New Hanover Public Library

The Old New Hanover Genealogical Society has given a $1,000 gift to the Library to be spent on genealogical books for the collection. This is the largest monetary gift ever received by the Local History and Genealogy Room. It comes at the best possible time, since the book budget was severely cut in the past year. The money will be used to purchase much needed North Carolina genealogical abstracts and microfilm. If you have a special need, please let us know and we will try to fill the void. A list of new publications will follow in the next newsletter. The Library and all local genealogists thank ONHGS for their incredibly generous donation.

The following family files have been added to the Reaves Collection:

Bordeaux. Bray. Brantley. Branch, Brand. Brewer, Breckenridge. Breece. Brickhouse, Brice. Bright. Bryan. Bridgers, Edens. Covil. Fishblate. Futch. Gaylor, Hall, Hilburn, Horrell, Lamb, Meares, Ritter. Radcliffe, Uanet, Woodcock, and White.

Bill is typing and indexing his files in alphabetical order, but when asked will work on a particular family. Let the Library staff know the family that you wish to see done first, and Bill will put it on his list.

You may request a copy of a family file by writing to Local History Room, New Hanover County Public Library, 201 Chestnut Street, Wilmington, N.C. 28401. Send a self-addressed-stamped envelope and the staff will advise you of the cost ($.15 per page plus postage and handling).

[The end.]

The Chronicles of the Cape Fear, by James Sprunt is being reprinted by Thomas Broadfoot. Originally published in the early part of this century. it has long been acclaimed as one of the best local histories of our region and contains thousands of people who fostered events in our area. Unfortunately it has been out-of-print for many years. Copies of the book will be on sale in the New Hanover Public Library Local History Room. Mr. Broadfoot is graciously donating two thirds of the profits of each book sold, to the Friends of the Library to be used in the Local History Room. Copies are due to arrive on December 12th. The cost is $35.00. Orders are currently being taken at the Library. This beautiful deluxe edition will make a terrific addition to your library or a favorite Christmas present for a friend. Please contact the Local History Room, 341-4394 for more information, or write to the Library, 201 Chestnut Street, Wilmington. NC 28401.

New Eanover County Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions Minutes

[Here is the beginning of a new series submitted by Helen Moore Sammons. The New Hanover County Court Minutes prior to 1800 were abstracted many years ago by Alexander Walker. They are in four volumes and can be purchased from ONHGS. A Courthouse fire destroyed the county court minutes from 1800 to 1805, therefore, Mrs. Sanmons begins her series in 1805. REMINDERS

ONHGS is revising its ancestor roster. Please read the enclosed insert and fill out the form if you want to be included. Special thanks go to Charlotte Fetterman, who updates the rolodex roster at the Public Library; Billy Davis, who faithfully adds the records to our computer data base; and committee members Sallie McClintock, June Swinson, Jo Ann O'Quinn and Pat Gasson.

Please mark you calendars for the advanced genealogical workshop co-sponsored by the North Carolina Genealogical Society. It will be an all day workshop held on Saturday, March 13, 1993 at the New Hanover County Public Library. Speakers Helen Leary, Jane Smith Hill and Nelson Weller have planned a great program for us. It will be the first time that it has been presented in North Carolina. It includes an in depth lesson on how to identify land holdings recorded in old deed books, the best way to decipher old handwriting, and unusual ways that the census can help you. The format will include audience participation and handouts. The cost will probably be around $30.00. As we learn more about the workshop, we will keep you informed.

Brochures concerning the 1993 National Genealogical Society Conference in the States to be held June 2 - 5, 1993 in Baltimore, Maryland are available in the Public Library Local History Room.

The newsletter editor thanks George Willcox, Dean Jarrett, Bill Reaves, Tom Broadfoot, June Swinson, Helen Sammons, and Van Stilley for contributing to this issue.

The Clarendon Courier is published quarterly in June, September, December, and March. The copy deadline is the 10th of the month prior to publication. The deadline for the March newsletter is February 10, 1993.

Unfortunately some of our members have not received their newsletters. We assure you that we have mailed them to all of our members. The problem seems to be with the U.S. Mail. We try to mail the newsletter during the first week of the month, March, June, September and December. If you have not received your copy by the end of the second week, please let us know and we will make sure you get a copy.

To order back copies of the newsletter send $1.50 per issue to ONHGS, P.O. Box 2436, Wilmington, N.C. 28402-2536.

In order to insure your continued receipt of the Courier please check the address label for your membership expiration date (see below). All renewals should be sent to Sallie McClintock, treasurer, at the ONHGS address.
