MARCH 1994

ONHGS PROGRAMS

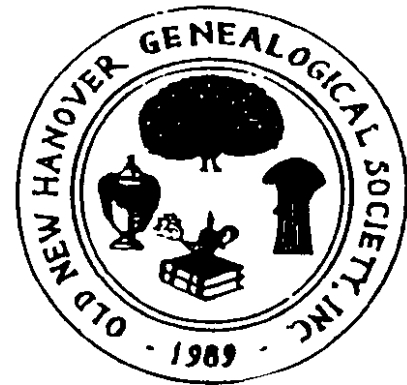

On Tuesday April 19, 1994, Mr. Henry Mintz will speak on "Confederate Soldiers from North Carolina in Uniform." Henry has, for several years, been involved in a program to document as many photographs as possible which feature confederate soldiers in uniform. The product of his work will be a photographic history of North Carolinians in uniform. The book will be published by the North Carolina Department of Archives and History. Henry and other Civil War historians have gathered enough photographs for at least two volumes. He has traveled across the state speaking to interested groups, who have in turn, let him copy photographs of their ancestors. He will present a slide program in which he talks about each man, their uniform, their rank, where they fought, and what happened to them after the war. He has documented many of the soldiers from Southeastern North Carolina and thanks to his efforts. they will be well represented in the book. He has also been an outstanding contributor to the last volumes of North Carolina Troops, published by Archives and History. If you have a photograph of an ancestor in uniform who served from North Carolina, please bring it along to the meeting. He will be happy to arrange it so your ancestor can be included in the books.

On May 14, 1994 the Society will gather at Sloop Point Plantation for their annual picnic. Our hosts will be ONHGS members Mae and Walter Graves, who own the lovely 18th Century house. Bring a cover dish for you and your guests, and folding chairs. Drinks and paper products will be provided. To get to Sloop Point from Wilmington, go North on U.S. 17. Six and one half miles from the stoplight at Hampstead turn to the right at Hilltop grocery store. Go two and two tenths miles and you will see an iron gate on the left. The picnic begins at 11:30 a.m. The Society extends a special thank you to Mae and Walt for hosting this event.

From the Editor....

The Clarendon Courier is later than usual this quarter. A computer malfunction, ACC basketball, and the Olympics held in my beloved Norway, had a lot to do with the delay. I want to thank your board of directors for granting me the funds to have a graphic artist design a new letterhead. Thank you all for your letters of support and suggestions on how to make the Courier a better publication.

OBJECTIVES: (1) To collect, preserve, and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical, and heraldic data; (2) to encourage and promote interest in research; (3) to adhere to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research; (4) to champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices of researchers; (5) to foster careful publications; (7) to encourage, and provide scholarly training for all interested in these endeavors.

MEMBERSHIP: The membership of the Society is open to all individuals and organizations interested in genealogy upon payment of dues which are renewed annually on the anniversary of the original membership. Dues are: Individual and institutional - $15.00; Family - $20.00; Life - $100.00. Mail dues to Treasurer at the above address. Members are encouraged to submit surnames of the families they are researching to be included in the Society's ancestor roster. They also receive a 10% discount on all publications and free queries in the Clarendon Courier.

NEWSLETTER/JOURNAL: Members receive the Society publication, the Clarendon Courier, which is published quarterly; March, June, September, and December. The deadline for material to be submitted to the editor is the 1st of the month prior to publication.

MEETINGS: Monthly meetings, unless otherwise notified, are held at 7:00 p.m. on the third Tuesday of each month, September through May. Unless notified the meetings are held in room 105 of Bear Hall on the campus of UNCW.

QUERIES: Queries are published free for members when space is available. They should be typed or legibly printed on separate sheets of paper, each with sender's name and address. Each query should state geographical connection to Southeastern North Carolina, or adjacent areas, and such dates as will place them in context. They are subject to edition. So that the editor will understand them, please do not abbreviate. Mail queries to Van Stilley, Queries Editor, at the Society address.

BOOK DEPARTMENT: The Society has for sale over 50 genealogical abstracts. Your membership allows you a 10% discount on all publications. For a list of publications for sale send an SASE to Book Department at the Society address.

NEW HANOVER COUNTY COURT OF PLEAS & QUARTER SESSIONS

[This series submitted by Helen Moore Sammons continues from the December 1994 Courier. the New Hanover County Court Minutes prior to 1800 were abstracted many years ago by Alexander Walker. They are in four volumes and can be purchased from ONHGS. A courthouse fire destroyed the court minutes from 1800 to 1805, therefore, Mrs. Sammons began her series in 1805. Spelling was recorded as seen and a ____ is given when the abstractor found the minutes impossible to read.]

NEW HANOVER RECORDS DURING THE CIVIL WAR

[Editor's note: I received the following information from ONHGS member A. Jarvis Wood of Fernandina Beach, Florida. Mr. Wood is the author of several studies of the Wood family of Wilmington.]

"I am, as usual, enjoying my copy of the current Clarendon Courier. There is an article on page 12, (December 1993), concerning records destroyed during the Civil War, on which I might throw a little light. The true account of what happened to the New Hanover County records is treated in a study, The Iron Horse Comes to Robeson, by Col. Musselwhite of Lumberton (1968). The original reposes in the Lumberton Public Library, and I submit herewith photocopies of pertinent sections. This, of course, agrees with the account given my father by R.B. Wood, Jr., his father, and is related on page 16 of my biography of R.B. Wood, Sr. I rather imagine that Major Harriss simply reached for a plausible story instead of going to the trouble of setting the record straight."

The "Iron Horse" Comes to Robeson, a County of a "Rip Van Winkle State", by Eugene MCM. Musselwhite.

Destruction of Railroad Property in Lumberton. Before Major General Francis J. Blair, Jr., ordered the Seventeenth Corps to move forward from Campbell's Bridge on March 9, 1865, he sent a mounted Infantry regiment to Lumberton, some thirty miles east, under orders to burn all bridges and railroad property in the area. Since in late February, the town of Lumberton had been in the dark as to Sherman's possible route and destination. The raiders destroyed the wagon and railroad bridges over the Lumber River, the railroad depot, six box cars, and about one mile of track. [John G. Barrett, The Civil War in North Carolina, pp. 302-3031

A Faithful Slave Saves New Hanover County Records. The late Louis T. Moore, prominent historian of Wilmington, relates the following interesting story about a slave who preserved the records of New Hanover County during the Civil War:

"The people of Wilmington were afraid that Sherman might swing the coast, combine his forces with those besieging Fort Fisher, and destroy every thing. Mr. R.B. Wood, Jr., Assistant Clerk of New Hanover County Court, had boxed and shipped to Lumberton, for storage in the freight station there, a large quantity of records and papers, not only of his office, but also of the office of the Register of Deeds. The family of Michael Cronley, a prominent merchant of Wilmington, had taken refuge at Laurinburg. He owned a faithful slave, named Jeff Norment, who was born in Robeson County. When it was known that Sherman's forces were approaching, Mr. Cronley sent Jeff to Lumberton with some valuable effects and with instructions to report to Mr. Wood, who realized that the railroad station would be the first building to be burned if the town was invaded. Jeff, after being told by Mr. Wood that he was the only one that could save the valuable records, along with his Master's valuables, and his them in a nearby swamp. After the Federal troops left the area on their northward march, the records were recovered and returned to Wilmington. So far as is known, the Jeff Norment was never truly recognized for his unprecedented and remarkable action in preserving a great volume of legal records, which could have never been replaced had they been destroyed by the Federal troops." GENEALOGICAL NOTES FROM THE NEW HANOVER PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following family files have been added to the Reaves Collection: Carmichael, Dunham, Durant, Evans (Part II), Hamme, Harman/Harmon, Heide, Humphrey, Lewis, McDougall, McDougald, McIlhenny, McKay, McKoy, McLaughlin, Murray, Rhodes, and Sikes/Sykes.

You may request a copy of a family file by writing to Local History Room, New Hanover Public Library, 201 Chestnut Street, Wilmington, NC 28401. Send a self-addressed-stamped envelope and the staff will advise you of the number of pages and cost ($.15 per page plus postage and handling).

ONHGS has presented to the Local History Room several microfilm reels of Isle of Wright County, Virginia early records. Because so many eastern North Carolina families migrated from that area of Virginia. it was felt that these records would be appropriate for the collection. Just ask Dot or Beverly where they are kept.

THE HASKETT AWARD

The annual Haskett Award, given to the outstanding genealogist from our Society, will be presented at the April meeting. Dean Jarrett, Van Stilley, and Louis Nance make up the committee to choose this year's recipient. If you have a nomination, please let them know.

REVIVAL OF INTEREST IN FAMILY HISTORY AND ITS CAUSE AND EFFECT

[This item from the newspaper files of Bill Reaves, 1897, makes us wish if only our ancestors had taken the advice and written it all down a hundred years ago!]

"The recent growth and increase of societies in which eligibility to membership depends upon the deeds of ancestors rather than upon any personal qualifications of members, has resulted in a great revival of the study of genealogy in this country. We have the Sons and the Daughters of the Revolution, the Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the War of 1812, Colonial Dames, Society of the Mayflower Descendants, Holland Society and others, organized and organizing. To become a member of any of these, a record of the family history is required.

It is an injustice to characterize this movement as merely a society fad or passing fancy. It is much more. It stimulates a desire for genealogical and historical research, a pleasing and interesting study. It leads to a proper respect for one's ancestors, and creates a desire to emulate their work for the good of one's family and country. It revives an interest in American history, and promotes patriotism, good citizenship and love of country. Therefore, the movement is one to be commended, and thousands are now making a study of their family history. In fact, every person should compile and preserve such a family record for it may be of great value to future generations, if not to themselves."

NEWS FROM THE NORTH CAROLINA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

The North Carolina Genealogical Society Journal is currently on sale. If you order one year's worth of Journals you get another year free. The NCGS Journal began publication in 1975, and has achieved and held the reputation of being one of the finest genealogical quarterlies in the country. For two decades under the highly reputable editorship of Jo White Linn, Ransom McBride, and Raymond A. Winslow, Jr., each issue has provided readers with a wide variety of North Carolina genealogical material, which has proven to be an extremely useful source of information. Articles by Jo White Linn, Betty J. Camin, Ransom McBride, Helen F.M. Leary, Bruce Pruitt, Virginia Pope Livingston, William D. Bennett, Brent H. Holcomb, Robert M. Tompkins, Hugh Buckner Johnston, and many other experts can be found within the Journal's covers. The price for one year is $25.00 and a second year is free. For more information contact Beverly Tetterton at the New Hanover Public Library, 341-4394, or write to Margaret M. Hofmann, P.O. Box 446, Roanoke Rapids, N.C. 27870.

The Board of the North Carolina Genealogical Society will hold their spring meeting in Southport. They will be present at a dinner hosted by the Southport Historical Society on Friday April 29, 1994. ONHGS members are invited to attend and speak about their Society and genealogical pursuits. Details about the get-together will be forthcoming. Mark your calendars now to attend this genealogical event.

NEW HANOVER COUNTY DEED BOOK C

[Many of New Hanover County's earliest records have been destroyed by Courthouse fires. What was left of the first two deed books, A and B, were combined to form Book AB. They have been abstracted and published by ONHGS member Mae Blake Graves, therefore, we begin this series with Deed Book C. New Hanover County was formed in 1729 from Craven County. Bladen and Onslow Counties were formed from New Hanover in 1734, Duplin County in 1750, Brunswick County in 1764, part of New Hanover was annexed to Sampson County in 1795, and Pender County was formed from New Hanover in 1875. The following abstract of Deed Book C, which covers many early records for these areas, was compiled by Ida Brooks Kellam in 1939. Continued from the December 1993 Courier.]

Many thanks to JoAnn O'Quinn !

It is with regret that we accept the resignation of JoAnn O'Quinn from the Membership Committee. She has given many hours of work sending out letters, cards, and other information to all of our members who renew or join each month, and we greatly appreciate all of her efforts to keep this organization running smoothly. Her input on this committee will be missed.

Carole Weiss has graciously agreed to assist the Membership Committee for the remainder of our term in office, and we welcome her on board.

Official Records of the North Carolina Line. Continental Army
Found in Raleigh

[From the files of Bill Reaves, Wilmington Messenger, 5-26-1896.]

Excerpt from Raleigh News and Observer -- A "find" of great value to the students of history and heredity has been made in the office of the Auditor of the State. The official records of the North Carolina Line in the Continental Army have been discovered. When Sherman came to Raleigh with his blazing torch he destroyed in pure wantonness many of the rarest and most valuable records of the State. It was thought that these records of the Revolution had met the same fate that befell so many other valuable State documents. In searching through the records of the office a few days ago, Mr. T. Palmer Jerman, chief clerk, came upon the official pay-list of the North Carolina Line. The only official records of the Revolution heretofore accessible were those of the pension office in Washington, and as few of the survivors applied for pensions, the list amounted to little.

The editor thanks Sallie McClintock, Bill Reaves, Helen Moore Sammons, Lucille Blake, and Van Stilley for contributing to this issue.
