Objectives: To collect, preserve, and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical, and heraldic data; to encourage and promote interest in genealogical research, to adhere to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research; to champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices of researchers; to foster careful publications, to encourage and provide scholarly training for all interested in these endeavors.

Membership: The membership of the Society is open to all individuals and organizations interested in genealogy upon payment of dues which are renewed annually in January. Dues are: Individual and Institutional: $15.00; Family: $20.00; Life: $225.00. Mail dues to ONHGS Secretary at the above address. Members are encouraged to submit surnames of the families that they are researching to be included in the Society's ancestor roster. They also receive a 10% discount on all publications and free queries in the Clarendon Courier.

Clarendon Courier: Members receive this quarterly in the Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall. The deadline for submission of material for publication is December 10, March 10, June 10 and Sept. 10. Back issues can be purchased for $6.00 per issue or $24.00 per year.

Meetings: Monthly meetings are held at 7:00 p.m. on the second Tuesday of the month, September through May. Unless otherwise notified, meetings are held in the large meeting room of the New Hanover County Public Library, 201 Chestnut Street, Wilmington, NC. The computer interest group meets at 6:00 p.m. in the Library's small meeting room prior to the monthly meetings.

Book Department: The society has for sale over 80 genealogical abstracts covering Southeastern North Carolina. Your membership allows you a 10% discount on all books. Please let us know if you want a book list.

Queries: Queries are published free for members. They should be typed or legibly printed on separate sheets of paper, each with the sender's name and address. Each query should state geographical connection to Southeastern North Carolina or adjacent areas, and such dates as place them in context. They are subject to editing. So that the editor will understand them, please do not abbreviate. Mail queries to Van Stilley, Queries Editor, at the above address.

SOCIETY NOTES

Make your plans to attend the Society's first fall meeting on September 12,2000 at 7:00 p.m. in the large meeting room of the New Hanover County Public Library. The first program is entitled: "Now That Aunt Sarah Left You the Family Papers, What Do You Do with Them??" Experts will give helpful advice on how to conserve your family memorabilia. The McKenzie Computer Group will meet at 6:00 p.m. A complete list of this year's program titles is on page 44.

The ONHGS Board wants all Life Members to continue receiving their Couriers and other communications from the Society. However, due to the ever increasing postal charges, if your Courier is returned with no forwarding address, we will bc forced to drop you from our mailing list. Please inform us of any address changes. Thank you. Doris Waff, Secretary.

New Society members are Lynn Benson, Carolina Beach, NC and Gwen K. Brown, Great Mills, MD. Welcome!

Congratulations to Ann Hutteman, Coeditor of the Courier, who was awarded a Lower Cape Fear Society Cup for her book, One Hundred Golden Summers: A History of the Hanover Seaside Club, 1898-1998, at the Society's annual meeting in May.

A Bibliography of Cemeteries

Prepared by Beverly Tetterton

New Hanover County

Oakdale Cemetery Records, Wilmington, North Carolina, 5 volumes, 1852-1879; 1880-1920; 1920-1949; 1950-1969; 1970-1988. Founded in 1852, Oakdale is Wilmington's largest cemetery. Many who died before 1852 were also removed to Oakdale.

There are 4 different books that cover Bellevue Cemetery which began in 1879 as a private cemetery company. Some of the following compilations are taken from stones, some from the registers, and some include both. It is wise to check all of the volumes. Burial Records of Bellevue Cemetery, Wilmington, N.C. compiled by Jeff and Susan Phillips. Register of Deaths and Burials, Bellevue Cemetery Company, July 1876 - May 1988, an Eagle Scout project, led by Jonathan T. Rowell of Boy Scout Troop 215. Bellevue Cemetery, Wilmington, North Carolina, A Directory of Grave Sites, a photocopy of an old hand written listing. Lower Cape Fear Gravestone Records, Vol. III (Bellevue Cemetery, Wilmington, North Carolina), by Ida Brooks Kellam.

Prospect Cemetery, by Emma Yopp Murray. Located in a recently highly developed area north of Wilmington near Highway 117 and Military Cutoff Road, the earliest grave dates to 1860.

Oak Grove Cemetery, Wilmington, North Carolina, compiled by Bill Reaves. The original Oak Grove records have been lost. Mr. Reaves compiled them from newspaper notices and death certificates. It is the final resting place of both whites and blacks. There was also a "potter's field" area for unknowns, strangers, criminals and the destitute.

Masonboro Sound Cemeteries and Other Information, compiled by Crockett W. Hewlett. Included are the burials in Masonboro Baptist Church as well as several family cemeteries in the area.

Inscriptions, by Elizabeth Francenia McKoy. From St. James Church graveyard, these records include the entire tombstone inscription.

Gravestone Records, New Hanover County, with Supplementary Records for Pender County, by Leora H. McEachern. Vol. XI in her cemetery series, this book covers the smaller family and church cemeteries in the county.

Pine Forest Cemetery Records, 1863-1971. These are the records of the city's oldest surviving African-American cemetery. They can only be viewed on microfilm.

Brunswick County

Lower Cape Fear Gravestone Records (Vol. I) by Ida Brooks Kellam. These records, which randomly cover all the counties of Southeastern, NC, were compiled in 1959. Of the 43 cemeteries covered, 25 are in Brunswick County.

The Cemeteries of Southport (Smithville) and Surrounding Area, compiled by Dorcas W. Schmidt.

Pender County

Pender County, North Carolina Gravestone Records, Leora Hiatt "Billie" McEachern. This is a remarkable collection of over 400 family and church cemeteries.

Onslow County

Onslow County Cemetery Records, compiled by James Michael Whaley. Twelve volumes of hundreds of family and church cemeteries.

Onslow County, North Carolina, Confederate

Veterans, compiled by James Michael Whaley. This collection includes the cemetery records of Onslow County Confederate veterans.

published four volumes of Onslow County family and church cemeteries. Fortunately, they intend to continue the project in the future.

Markers of Time, Cemeteries of Onslow County, a project of the Onslow County Old Cemetery Society. So far the Cemetery Society has

City of Jacksonville, City Cemetery Listing, published by the city of Jacksonville, NC.

NEWS AND NOTES

The 2000 North Carolina Genealogical Society Annual Meeting and Workshop will be held on November 3 & 4 at the Wake County Commons Building in Raleigh. The subject this year is "Finding Women: Strategies for Finding and Understanding Your Female Ancestors." Lectures include: "Sources for Women's Records"; "Colonial Women and the Courts"; "Mamage, Women and the Law"; and "Worth Carolina Land Laws and Women." Among the lecturers is the nationally acclaimed Helen Leary and our very own Joseph Sheppard, whose lecture is entitled "An Aristocratic Lady. a Slave Woman, A Mexican War Bride and a Madam." For more information and a registration form contact the public library at 341-4394 or on the Web at www.ncgenealogy.com.

Census Records

Sometime this Fall, all of the censuses, all years (1790-1920). all states. all counties will be available for seraching at the library's North Carolina Room. This service will be provided by Ancestry for a fee per computer terminal. The library will be paying all costs and will have at least one terminal (maybe two) available in the North Carolina Room. There will probably be another terminal available at the new library branch (opening in September) at the Landfall Shopping Cncter This is incredibly exciting news for genealogists. Censuses are the "meat and potatoes" of gencalogical research and just imagine - no more interlibrary loans!!! Speaking of censuses, the National Archives will release the 1930 Census on April 1, 2002. Included are 2668 rolls of microfilm. For more information contact their web page at www.nara.gov/genealogy/1930cen.htm .

The editors would like to thank Helen Sammons, Bill Reaves, Beverly Tetterton and Joe Sheppard for their contributions to this Courier. If anyone has any material or news that they would like to see published in the Courier, please submit it to the editors. They arc always searching for items to be included. Let us hear from you!

MORE SOCIETY NOTES

ONHGS Society Meetings & Programs
For 2000-2001

September 12,2000 "Now That Aunt Sarah Left You the Family Papers, What Do You Do with Them??" Experts will demonstrate economical ways to conserve old letters, newspapers, certificates, photographs and other family memorabilia, as well as provide tips on how archivists arrange such collections.

October 10,2000 "Genealogy in Old Newspapers" Bill Reaves, Helen Sammons and Marsha Hayes will discuss the value of old newspapers when doing genealogical research, as well as how to get your hands on the old newspaper you need for your research.

November 14,2000 "Professional Genealogists" Raleigh, NC professional researcher, Brenda Holloman, will give tips on when to hire a professional and the best way to make good use of their time, as well as share interesting success and failure stories relating to her long-time genealogical career.

January 9,2001 "Genealogy On The Internet" Don Blake will give HANDS ON instruction of the best ways to search the Web for your ancestors. Before the program, ONHGS will let you know where the program will be given, at either the UNCW or the CFCC library computer lab.

February 13,2001 "How Church Records Can Help You Search Out Your Ancestors" Experts on various denominational archives will speak on their particular church records and where to find them.

March 13,2000 "How to Write a Family History" Leonard Dean of Raleigh will present the do's and don'ts while writing your family history for publication. Mr. Dean has lectured on the subject many times and his history of the Hobgood family is considered a model of good family history writing.

April 10,2001 "Court House Records" What types of records should I expect to find in the courthouse and how do I access them?

May 5,2001 Annual Picnic at Moore's Creek Battleground. Bring your family letters to be read to the rest of the group. Members that attended last year's readings couldn't get enough of it! If you are an ONHGS member who lives out of town, plan to visit in May so you can attend our picnic. Who knows, you may meet an cousin or two!

In an attempt to keep the membership informed as to the upcoming year's meetings, J.D. Causey and Beverly Tetterton have worked hard to present the above line-up of topics. Please let them know if you have other ideas or want to help with programming. J.D. is planning to have ONHGS sponsor a Genealogy 101 class early next year. News of the class will be forthcoming.

Randolph Jefferson Cary (1921-2000)

A Tribute by Beverly Tetterton

The local genealogical community lost a great man on May 25, 2000. Born on February 13, 1921, Randy Cary was reared in Richmond, Virginia, steeped in the family tradition of one of the state's oldest and most distinguished families. Randy graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point and chose a life of military service. After retirement from the military, he and his beloved wife, Becky, settled in Wilmington where he worked in the insurance industry. They were active in local affairs and at St. James Episcopal and First Presbyterian Church. During retirement, Randy had time to enjoy his avid pursuit of family history. He was a member of numerous genealogical organizations including the Society of Cincinnati, the Virginia Genealogical Society, the North Carolina Genealogical Society, and was a charter member of the Old New Hanover Genealogical Society.

I met him at the library where he spent countless hours doing research on the Cary clan as well as preparing papers for applicants to the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America. He was always very generous with his expertise and had the ability to graciously listen and show interest in others. His good humor was overflowing. I will never forget the day, when after countless hours of preparation, he had received word that he had been accepted into the Society of Royal Bastards (devoted to those who descended from a bastard member of England's Royal Family). I encountered him breathless from running up the library's stairs. Waving his official acceptance over his head he exclaimed, "Beverly, Beverly, it's official, I am a Royal Bastard!"

- In 1989, when the Old New Hanover Genealogical Society was forming, Randy accepted the position of vice president. He was instrumental in getting the society off and running. Among other duties, he was helpful in setting up our publications program. He was mindful of how many genealogical abstracts were being created by library volunteers and I will always be thankful to him for setting up the memorandum which allowed the society to publish these books and share the rewards with the library. From those efforts, hundreds of genealogical books have been added to the library shelves.

Randy and I both served on the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Society. Together, we traveled across North Carolina to board meetings. At the time, NCGS was heading into financial trouble and Randy was helpful in starting us on the road to recovery. I really got to know him well during those long drives. It was obvious from our conversations that he was foremost a family man. He was very proud of his sons and his grandchildren. A good listener, he also learned about my family and I cannot think of one time that I saw him that he did not ask about my husband and daughter. One could not find a more sincere friend.

Randy Cary was the quintessential Virginia gentleman. His wisdom, wit and integrity was contagious. A full church celebrated his life at First Presbyterian's memorial service held on May 26, 2000. The Old New Hanover Genealogical Society joins me in sending our heartfelt sympathy to his family. A fitting repose, he was buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

NEW HANOVER COUNTY DEED BOOK "D"

[Many of New Hanover Count's earliest records were destroyed by courthouse fires. What was left of the county's first two deed books, A and B, was combined to form AB. This book was abstracted many years ago by Mae Blake Graves. Deed Book C was published in the Courier from 1992 to 1996. This series of abstracts from Deed Book D began in the Summer 1997 issue of the Courier. New Hanover was formed in 1729 from Craven County. Bladen and Onslow counties were formed from New Hanover in 1734, Duplin County in 1750, Brunswick County in 1764, part of New Hanover was annexed to Sampson County in 1795, and Pender County, last but not least, broke away from New Hanover in 1875. The following abstract of Deed Book D, which covers many early records from the above counties, was compiled by Ida Brooks Kellam in 1939 and 1940.1

The Bill Reaves Collection

The Bill Reaves Collection in the New Hanover County Public Library is a very valuable resource for area genealogists. Recently, there have been a number of requests for an up-dated list of all the family files contained in the collection. The last portion of that list is published here.

If you want a copy of one of these files send a request with a self-addressed-stamped envelope to the North Carolina Room, New Hanover County Public Library, 201 Chestnut Street, Wilmington, NC 28401. The library staff will inform you of the number of pages and the cost of sending the file (15 cents per page plus postage). [Editor's Note: In September 1747, Spanish privateers came up the Cape Fear River to Brunswick Town. A group of local citizens captured the ships after a hard fought battle. The above is a list from colonial records of men who participated in the event.]

Church of Saint Thomas The Apostle
Registers of Baptisms, Marriages and Deaths

The Rev. Thomas Murphy was appointed Pastor of the Congregation of the Town of Wilmington on January 1st 1845, by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Ignatius Reynolds, Bishop of the Charleston Diocese. Murphy superintended the construction of St. Thomas Church. This is the seventh in a continuing series of St. Thomas records transcribed in complete by Joseph Sheppard. These registers, taken from microfilm housed in the New Hanover Public Library, contain six volumes dating from 1845 to 1968. Baptisms list the child or adult initiate, the parents (P.P.), sponsors (S.S.) and the presiding minister. Marriages include bride and groom, witnesses (W.W.) and serving clergyman. Deaths are recorded with the name of the deceased and the officiating priest. Obsequies are proper and appropriate duties in regard to the dead.

1 John Andrew Gallagher was baptized in Washington, NC on January 2, 1831 at the age of eight months by Rev. R.S. Baker. His father was Dr. Frederick Gallagher (1806-December 29, 1890) the son of John (1779-September 25, 1832) and Ann M. (1779-October 27, 1836) Gallagher. His mother was Ann Catherine (1806-March 20, 1875) the daughter of Henry and Hannah O'Neill of Philadelphia. Dr. Frederick Gallagher and Ann C. O'Neill were married on June 7, 1829 by A.Byrne with Bishop John England. Ralph Donnelly, The Parish Registers of St. John the Evangelist, Washington, NC, 1808-1911 (Greenville, NC: 1984) 5, 8, 42. The Gallagher family all resided in Washington, Beaufort County, NC according to the 1860 U.S. Federal Census, pages 1018 and 992. By this census John A., a druggist by occupation, had married Sarah Jane Quinn. He enlisted in Carteret County April 17, 1861 as a private in Company G, 10th Regiment N.C. State Troops (1st Regiment N.C. Artillery), present and accounted for through October 1861. On November 16, 1861 he was appointed surgeon and assigned to the Medical Department. Louis Manarin, North Carolino Troops 1861-1865 A Roster (Raleigh: NC Dept. of Archives and History, 1966) 117. Unfortunately, on July 30 he died of a wound accidentally received in the course of a dissection. Helen Sammons, Morriages & Deaths from Wilmington Newspapers 1860-1865 (Wilmington: Old New Hanover Genealogical Society, 1987) 75. John and Sarah Gallagher's only son was Frederick Louis (1861-February 2, 1894). ONE LAST WORD...

HAS PURCHASED LOCOMOBILE

Wilmington is to have a locomobile - not an automobile- and Dr. E.S. Pigford, it is said will have the distinction of being the first in the city to introduce the "new fanged conveyance." The order was made several days ago through Mr. C.M. Whitlock, but owing to the rush of orders at the factory it will be thirty days before the new horseless carriage will arrive. Mr. S. P. McNair's friends say that in the event of Dr. Pigford's dissatisfaction with the machine after its arrival, Mr. McNair has agreed to "take it off his hands." The propelling power will be steam and the carriage "will be built for two." The crusher, "which lives, moves, has its being and frightens horse under its own steam," will be back number upon the arrival of Dr. Pigford's new vehicle.
