PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends:

As your new President, I would like to welcome you to ONHGS's new year.

A big THANK YOU to Jim Edwards for his leadership and accomplishments during his presidency. With valued in-put, he will continue as an officer on the Board. Pete Davis, Vice-president is working toward inviting new and interesting speakers for the coming year. Joseph Sheppard, Member-at-large, will soon be conducting a genealogy class through the Life Long Learning Center, UNCW.

If you have not seen our web page, please log on at www.onhgs.org. While you're there, check out "publications," where you'll find our ONHGS book list.

In the meantime, I'm looking forward to making your acquaintance. So please introduce yourself to me at the meetings.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Fetterman
President

BIG SURPRISE

For a school genealogy project, Jessica Cross and Alexis Ford of Prescott, Arizona, were assigned to create a family tree for their fourth grade class. Both brought in the same photo of an ancestor standing beside his new 1925 Model T Ford. They quickly discovered that they have the same great-great grandfather - George Cross of Indiana. Until then, the girls were unaware that they were related. Over the generations, two branches of the same family, unknown to each other, had ended up in the same Arizona neighborhood. "It's a stunning coincidence," says Sue Bruce, a genealogist from Lexington, Massachusetts.

Wills of Brunswick County, North Carolina
Record of Deeds Book B 1772 - 1790

By Joseph Sheppard

In 1764, the fifth year of the reign of George the Third, the Royal Governor Arthur Dobbs and the Council and Assembly of the Province of North Carolina erected Brunswick County from parts of New Hanover and Bladen Counties. The earliest wills from Brunswick County were recorded in the Brunswick deeds books. This is the first in a continuing series of Brunswick County wills copied from Brunswick Deeds Book B (DBB). The Wills from Brunswick County Deed Book A, 1764 - 1772, were transcribed by Joseph Sheppard and are available for purchase through the Old New Hanover Genealogical Society (2004). All of the wills were read from microfilm housed in the Special Collections Department of the New Hanover County Public Library. Some wills are transcribed in full and some are abstract. Please contact the Old New Hanover Genealogical Society by mail or electronic means for the duplications of any publication or original record listed here.

ONE LAST WORD.....

An epitaph or inscription in a Ribberford, England cemetery:

"The Children of Israel wanted bread
And the Lord sent them manna
Old Johnny Wallace wanted a wife
And the devil sent him, Anna.."
